THE LISTENING / READING SCRIPT

Toy Story 3 is a 2010 American 3D computer-animated comedy-adventure film, and the third installment in the Toy Story series. It was produced by Pixar and released by Walt Disney Pictures. The plot focuses on the toys Woody, Buzz Lightyear, and their friends dealing with an uncertain future as their owner, Andy, prepares to leave for college and seemingly no longer needs toys. The toys are taken to a day-care center by mistake, instead of the attic, right before Andy leaves for college. They hate the place and the kids in it who treat them roughly. The movie sees Woody trying to convince the other toys that Andy didn't abandon them. Adventures follow as he tries to get the toys back home.

Toy Story 3 was nominated for five Academy Awards, including Best Picture, Best Adapted Screenplay, and Best Sound Editing. It was the third animated film ever to be nominated for the Academy Award for Best Picture. It won the awards for Best Animated Feature and Best Original Song. The movie broke Shrek the Third's record as the biggest opening day North American gross for an animated film. In early August, it overtook Finding Nemo to become Pixar's highest-grossing film. Later that month, Toy Story 3 became the first ever animated film in history to make over $1 billion worldwide. Mark Kermode of the BBC gave the film, and the series, a glowing review, calling it "the best movie trilogy of all time".
